

Time and time again, a free market has proven its ability to provide customers with improving services. The lack of competition stagnates innovation and progress. Please do not move to limit customer choice and stifle healthy competition!